Join us as we celebrate the power of community and charity through music and chili!

Community donors like you make it possible for Chilimania to provide local students with college scholarships, assist the Edgerton School District with various programs, fund local charitable organizations and promote the civic and business organizations of the community. We hope that we can count on your support to promote the downtown business community and raise funds for our area youth. Chilimania contributes to 25+ organizations annually!

Chilimania, Inc. is a locally based non-profit organization, staffed by an enthusiastic, all volunteer membership. We strive to do more each year to keep Edgerton and its wonderful community in the spotlight. Chilimania is the Midwest's Largest CASI Sanctioned Chili Cook-off as well as a day of bringing foot-stomping musical entertainment to downtown Edgerton.

Your consideration is greatly appreciated; enclosed is a form to make the process as simple to use and informative as possible. Be the hottest pepper around with a Carolina Reaper sponsorship! If you can't take that heat, consider any of the additional levels offered down to Jalapeno. We look forward to partnering with you!
